Subject: Donahue Reunion

John, I got the reunion info this afternoon. Unfortunatly, I won't be able to even drop by as we still haven't sold our house and have scheduled an Open House for tomorrow and Sunday afternoons. Any Briner dates, locations, etc. that you pick up would be welcomed.

By the way, I never did hear from Sherri--not even an acknowledgement to my e-mail. I don't think that branch of the family cares too much for genealogy.

THE BRINER FAMILY

ABOUT PETER BRINER

The earliest known ancestor of a certain group of people with the last name, BRINER or BRYNER, is Peter Briner. It is estimated that he lived from approximately 1750 to 1823. He first appeared in Fayette County, Pennsylvania at the time of the first United States Census of 1790. The census taker listed "Peter Brinner: as the head of the family. There were four (4) males and four (4) females listed to Peter Briner in addition to himself. The census taker listed the Peter Brunner Family in the same census just before the listing for the Peter Briner Family.

The next mention of Peter Briner was entry #12 of the U.S. Direct Tax of 1798 for Wharton Township, Fayette County, PA (Microcopy #372, Roll 23). This document recorded taxation of Peter Briner's land and other property of value. He had 320 acres along with the following:

Bryner Farm Cemetery-Dunbar Township

Compiled by Ken O'Neal

To find it, start in town of Dunbar, take road toward Ohiopyle. Go 3 miles turn right on State Gameland road, continue about 1 mile to end of road, park in far end of parking lot. Walk up road at corner of lot. After crossing second bridge, go on road to right to far end of field at top of hill. Stone is about 50 yards in woods on right. This is about a mile and a half one-way walk mostly up hill. It is my understanding, that this stone was about 50 yards from the Bryner Farm cemetery which was destroyed years ago when the State Game Commission put in a food plot for wildlife.

Peter's immediate neighbors were Paul Shull and Christian Wireman. Entry #13 of the same tax document was for Peter "Bruner" for 400 acres. The location of this property was elsewhere. The neighbors were Philip Kook and Henry Beeson. The "1798 Tax" document confirms the existence of the Briner, Brunner and Kook families in Wharton Township.

In the 1800, U.S. Census for Wharton Township there was a listing for the "Peter Prinor" family followed by the Andrew "Prinor" family. It is believed that, these listings were for the Peter Briner and Andrew Briner families. Peter now had two boys between 10 and 16 years of age and one son between 16 and 26 years of age; Peter was over 45 years of age. There was one daughter between 10 and 16 and a woman over 45 years of age. The older woman is believed to be Peter's wife, Catherine.

In the 1810 Census for Wharton Township, there were listings for the John "Briner," Peter "Briner," and Andrew "Briner" families. In the Peter Briner family there was one boy (approx. 23 years), believed to be George Briner (b. 1787), one young girl (approx. 20 years), believed to be Catherine Briner (b. 1790) and one older woman (over 45 years), believed to be wife Catherine Briner (b. ~1750) living with Peter Briner.

In the 1816 Property Tax Roll for Wharton Township, there were listings for "Peter, George, John and Andrew Briner." Except for George, who was listed as a laborer, all were farmers owning land. The total land they owned amounted to 295 acres.

In the 1817 Property Tax Roll, there were listings for only "John and Andrew Briner." The Peter and George Briner families were missing from the tax list. In subsequent years they never again appeared in Fayette County. We know from other sources that in 1816 they left Pennsylvania for Kentucky and Indiana where they remained for the remainder of their lives.

Starting in the Wharton Township 1823 Tax, Peter Briner property as "Unseated." This means he was not on what was now 228 acres; nor was anyone else (but the property still was owned by the estate of Peter Briner.) As was learned later, Peter may have died in 1823. The "Unseated" statement showed up in each yearly Wharton Township tax until 1829, when a person named Joseph Price took over the 228 acres of land, "As Seated."

In the 1820 Census for Orange County, Indiana, the Peter Briner and George Briner families appeared in Paoli Township. A Peter Briner family was also living in Grassy-Fork Township of Jackson County, Indiana. Another Peter Briner and one young woman was also living in Floyd County, Indiana. It is believed that Peter Briner is and possibly his oldest daughter, Elizabeth, were in Floyd County in 1820 to apply for his first land patent at the U.S. Patent Office in New Albany, Indiana. This Peter Briner in Jackson and Floyd County are believed to be Peter Briner Senior's (b. 1750) son Peter Briner Junior (b. ~1770).

Briner Family History

Submitted by Clifton F. Briner

The entire family of Peter Briner moved from Pennsylvania to Kentucky and Indiana by 1816 except for the family of Andrew Briner (Peter's son). The group that left had lived in Fayette County, Pennsylvania from about 1786. By about 1830 Andrew Briner's family began spelling their name "Bryner." This was a big family. Andrew had eighteen children, most by his first wife, Katherine Coffman. Andrew's second wife was Susannah Zook. Today in Fayette County there are hundreds of Bryner families, all descendants of Peter Briner. Peter Briner died in 1823 and is buried in Orange County, Indiana.

The Stewart Township 1872 map shows an area denoted as "Briner's Ridge District." It was spelled in the way the name was spelled when Peter lived there. Peter owned over 320 acres of that land. The "Whiskey Rebellion" took place in Fayette and Westmoreland Counties while Peter and his family lived there in 1794. The Briners raised grain and were taxed for operating a grist mill, saw mill, whiskey still and operating oxen. As a result of the repressive Federal Taxation thousands of the Fayette and Westmoreland County families pulled up stakes and headed into the interior of the wilderness. In these new areas taxation was not such a problem.

In the region near Briner Springs there is a large hilly area known to older inhabitants as "Briner's Ridge." It seems the Briners must have been looking for a land that reminded themselves of the Laurel Hills of Fayette County, Pennsylvania.

Isaac Briner
Family Lineage

Submitted by Clifton Briner

This is a family chart that ties Walls, Fisher, Gillum, Harris, Denny and Briner families together. Isaac Briner is buried in the old Baptist Cemetery near French Lick and West Baden Indiana. Isaac was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania. His father, John Briner, lived most of his life in Fayette County, but came to Orange County, Indiana when he was 53 years of age with his entire family. One of the reasons for the trip was that he had collected money owed to his father, Peter Briner, and was delivering it to the rest of his family in order to probate his father's last Will and Testament. When he arrived in Orange County in 1825 the money was shared with his brothers, George and Peter, Jr., and sisters, Elizabeth and Catherine. Andrew and Mary had already received their part of the inheritance.

Isaac and his brother, George (b. 1799), married Polly and Sally Denny, respectively. The girls father was Simon Denny recently of Shelby County, Kentucky. Although the chart only covers Isaac's family another similar chart could be created for his brother George's family. It would be sad to note that Isaac and George each lost two of their sons to the Civil War. Only one son, George Jacob Briner, had a family to pass the name on. John, Jonathan W. and Isaac Peter Briner died very young without a wife and family of their own.

The Battles of Perryville and Richmond Kentucky are noted for the slaughter of young Indiana sons. Thousands of young Indiana boys were killed in those two battles, primarily because they were sent to battle with no training, whatsoever. After the mess was over, several Indiana State politicians were criticized in Indianapolis, but the damage had already been done. President Lincoln fired the Union Army General in charge. The general's name was Don Carlos Buell. Sadly, thousands of Indiana boys died because of government incompetence.

BRINER CEMETERY

When George Briner (b. 1787) was living on his land near French Lick in the1840's, he often told his friends and family that when he died he wanted to be buried on a hill that overlooked their property and surrounding regions. He loved the view from the top of that hill. In the mid 1850's George's wife, Mary Clements, died suddenly and she was buried on that hill. Later on June21, 1867, George died and was buried there on that hill with the beautiful view.

George's grandson, John W. Briner and his wife, Eleanor, wanted to make certain that this hill with the beautiful view remained a sacred burial ground forever. The surrounding area was now known as the "Briner Springs Area." George's son and John W. Briner's father was Joshua Briner. By this time he was more or less retired and living with his son, so it was up to John and Eleanor to take action. The following records relate to their enterprise:

She married JAMES FRIEDLY RHUDE March 05, 1937 in Uniontown, Jackson Co., IN, son of FRANKLIN RUDE and BLANCHE LAMBERT. He was born August 10, 1911 in Austin, Scott Co., IN, and died September 08, 1971 in Crothersville, Jackson Co., IN.

Notes for JAMES FRIEDLY RHUDE:
For nearly four decades, James Friedly Rhude served the Crothersville community as its only or primary letter carrier, an occupation which endeared him to hundreds of its citizens over the years.

Born in Scott County, James was the first child of Franklin B. Rude and his second wife, Blanche E. Lambert. Within a few years the family moved to Jackson County where three of James' siblings died in infancy and his mother succumbed to tuberculosis when he was just 11 years old. But James and a younger brother, Floyd W., survived the hardships of those early years living with their father in a number of locations in Vernon Township.

An unusually bright youngster, James did well in school. Sympathetic teachers arranged assistance for the family in a variety of ways. It was one of those same teachers who suggested that he add an "H" to his name. Eager to please, he obliged and spelled the name RHUDE from about age 12 on.

Soon after graduation from high school he took the civil service exam and was awarded the postal service job he held for the remainder of his life. He married Lucille Briner in 1937 and together they reared a son and two daughters. All three went on to become valedictorians of their respective classes of Crothersville High School and all three taught school for a number of years.

James and Lucille were active in the First Baptist Church of Crothersville and James was an ordained deacon of the church for many years. He died of a heart attack in September of 1971 just a few weeks before he was to retire from the postal service.

Subject: RE: Briner Info.

John, that's right. There are lots of skeletons in the Briner closet. Jason got around. Apparently Jason's first wife Eliza died soon after her third child's birth. The 1900 census was taken in June and Jason is listed as a widower on that census. In September, he married Eva (Melvina Evaline) Briner--who was his niece by marriage--with whom he had had an illicit relationship four years earlier resulting in the birth of Hugh Johnson. Hugh and Melvina are living with Grandma Briner White on the 1900 census.

Fascinating.

OTTO L. BRINER FAMILY

All available data indicate that the Briner family immigrated to the New World in the mid-1700s from a German province in the Palatinate in the northern foothills of the Alps and the fertile plains of the upper Rhineland region. The majority of the Palatines were Protestant and many, including the Briners, sought religious freedom promised in Pennsylvania. From Pennsylvania they migrated west to Indiana.

Otto L. Briner, born Aug. 24, 1884 near Crothersville, represented the fourth generation of Briners to live in Jackson County. His parents were Elijah Briner and Harriet M. Winkler.

Otto worked for a period of time as a crew leader of the capping operation of the canning factory in Crothersville. His second cousin, Maude E. Briner, also worked there. On July 9, 1908 they were married. Maude, born Feb. 27, 1884, was the daughter of James Lewis Briner and Amanda D. Hawn.

About a year later Otto left the canning factory and took up farming. He and his bride bought a new three-room home on a 15-acre farm about two miles southeast of Crothersville and raised a family of eight.

Their first child was Clarice Naomi, born Jan. 30, 1909, who married Walter E. Beineke Sept. 21, 1929. Clarice died Sept. 1, 1983. There were no children.

Sons Harold Raymond, born May 15, 1910, and Earl Richard, born Feb. 12, 1912, never married and lived on the homestead farming 175 acres at one point and managing a small dairy herd. The third daughter, Lois Marie born Oct. 22, 1915, also stayed on the farm and still lives there with brother Earl. Harold died Oct. 2, 1985.

Edna Meryl, the fourth child, was born April 23, 1913 and married Harold B. Myers Oct. 24, 1936. They had two sons, Ronald Lee and Jerry Allen. Edna Meryl died June 3, 1984.

A fourth daughter, Marjorie Lucille, was born Aug. 14, 1918 and married James F. Rhude March 5, 1937. Their three children were Robert Dennis, Janet Gayle, and Marilyn Jean.

Marian Louise was born April 10, 1920. On Nov. 22, 1950 she married Marvin C. Boicourt and they raised two children, Ramona and Randall.

The eighth child, Everett Neal, was born Feb. 2, 1926. He married Sheila McClain May 25, 1955. They had two children, Roslyn Lorraine and Christopher Neal. Following Sheila's tragic death in an auto accident, Everett was married briefly to Edna Archer. Later he was divorced and married a third wife, Rachel Cravens Beswick. Submitted for Marian Briner Boicourt by: Robert D. Rhude

Isaac Briner
Family Lineage

Submitted by Clifton Briner

This is a family chart that ties Walls, Fisher, Gillum, Harris, Denny and Briner families together. Isaac Briner is buried in the old Baptist Cemetery near French Lick and West Baden Indiana. Isaac was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania. His father, John Briner, lived most of his life in Fayette County, but came to Orange County, Indiana when he was 53 years of age with his entire family. One of the reasons for the trip was that he had collected money owed to his father, Peter Briner, and was delivering it to the rest of his family in order to probate his father's last Will and Testament. When he arrived in Orange County in 1825 the money was shared with his brothers, George and Peter, Jr., and sisters, Elizabeth and Catherine. Andrew and Mary had already received their part of the inheritance.

Isaac and his brother, George (b. 1799), married Polly and Sally Denny, respectively. The girls father was Simon Denny recently of Shelby County, Kentucky. Although the chart only covers Isaac's family another similar chart could be created for his brother George's family. It would be sad to note that Isaac and George each lost two of their sons to the Civil War. Only one son, George Jacob Briner, had a family to pass the name on. John, Jonathan W. and Isaac Peter Briner died very young without a wife and family of their own.

The Battles of Perryville and Richmond Kentucky are noted for the slaughter of young Indiana sons. Thousands of young Indiana boys were killed in those two battles, primarily because they were sent to battle with no training, whatsoever. After the mess was over, several Indiana State politicians were criticized in Indianapolis, but the damage had already been done. President Lincoln fired the Union Army General in charge. The general's name was Don Carlos Buell. Sadly, thousands of Indiana boys died because of government incompetence.

BRINER CEMETERY

When George Briner (b. 1787) was living on his land near French Lick in the1840's, he often told his friends and family that when he died he wanted to be buried on a hill that overlooked their property and surrounding regions. He loved the view from the top of that hill. In the mid 1850's George's wife, Mary Clements, died suddenly and she was buried on that hill. Later on June21, 1867, George died and was buried there on that hill with the beautiful view.

George's grandson, John W. Briner and his wife, Eleanor, wanted to make certain that this hill with the beautiful view remained a sacred burial ground forever. The surrounding area was now known as the "Briner Springs Area." George's son and John W. Briner's father was Joshua Briner. By this time he was more or less retired and living with his son, so it was up to John and Eleanor to take action. The following records relate to their enterprise:

John Dee Briner

Submitted by Clifton F. Briner

John Dee Briner was born in the French Lick, Indiana area on September 18, 1847. His Parents were Henry (b. 1821) and Martha Briner (b. 1828), both natives of the Paoli, Indiana area. John Dee resembles his uncle Joshua Briner (b. 1816 KY) a little bit. In the late 1850s all the Briner families, except for Joshua Briner, moved directly east from Orange County to the Wabash River area in search of better farm land. Henry, Martha and John Dee lived the remainder of their lives as a farm folks near the Wabash River.

The families of Henry's brother, John, lived just across the river in Hazleton, IN, the families of his brother, George W. Briner, lived in Decker, IN, and the families of his brother, James W. Briner, lived in Wabash County, IL. In later years after loosing his wife, James W. Briner moved back to French Lick and married Lemanda Briner, the widow of the Civil War casualty, George Jacob Briner. On many occasions these families helped and loved each during their lives.

A Letter Home

To Eleanor Dougherty From John Briner November 9, 1861.

Much of the following information was furnished by David Kit Briner of Easton Connecticut. He is a great-grandson of John W. and Eleanor Briner. John W. is the son of Joshua Briner (b 1816). The following is from an actual letter. (spelling is unchanged)]

Camp Nevin, Kentucky

November 9, 1861

Dear Elenor,

With much joy I try to send a few more lines to you that you may still know that I still remember you with love & affection. I would have wrote sooner to you, but I have not been able to do so. My health is very bad & I am afraid will be no better while I stay in the army. I can inform you there is a smart chance of sickness among the soldiers. Dear girl you cannot imagine how I want to see you. I almost believe it would cure me to have the pleasure of your sweet company for a while. I often think of you while I am laying in my lonely tent, my mind wanders back to my native hills & there in my imagination I see thy own sweet self. And then I think on the happy moments of pleasure we have had together. Oh Elenor those were the happiest moments of my life, but I hope that I may be spared to get back to live those happy hours over again. It is always a source of great pleasure to me to hear from you & I want to write as soon as you get this. I expect if I don't get well they will send me home before a great while. But if can get well I would like to stay with the other boys.

I see thee in my dreams

I feel the spell that bound my soul to thine

I hear the bird like voice I love so well

And wake with rapture at the sound

I see thee in my dreams

I see thee yet

Though many hours have passed their silent way since we met

Though joy is changed to hope

I see thee in my dreams I see thee yet

But when from slumber I awake

No more thy loved form I see

But I'll dream on though my heart strings break

In death's long sleep

I'll fondly dream of thee

I am yours forever

John W. Briner

John was discharged from the army on April 25, 1862 in Columbia Tennessee. John W. Briner and Eleanor Dougherty were married on March 26, 1863.

Subject: Re: Your Mother

John, Monday would be fine. Bring anyone with you who is interested. We have activities planned Monday evening with another couple, but the day is wide open.

My mother still lives in Crothersville in the home my dad built for his retirement next door to the house where I lived my adolescent years. She complains a lot about her health but mentally she's still in good shape. She still lives alone, drives, and works daily in her yard. She needs to give up driving but that's a battle I'm reluctant to take on just yet.

Directions to our house:

Come down I-65 to the second Columbus exit (intersection with Indiana 46). Go west on 46 towards Nashville JUST to the top of the hill (1st stop light) and make a left on to Goeller Blvd. Follow Goeller around the first curve and turn left on to Terrace Lake Road. There is a fire station on the corner where you turn.

You go about one mile to the first stop sign (a 4-way stop), turn right on to Carr Hill Road, go to the first road (a short distance) which is Coles Drive and turn right. Go ONE lot and turn right again on to Butternut Drive. It's a one way street that loops off Coles and back on to it. We'll be the fourth house on the right after you turn on Butternut Drive.

Let me know about what time you'll be arriving.

Bob

Subject: RE: James Briner 1880 Census

John,

I couldn't pull up your census attachment--too big, I think. I've seen the 1880 census already and I rechecked the 1900 census for Amanda. She was not married at that time and my mother said she didn't remarry until Thomas White came along. Between James Louis' death and her marriage to Thomas, she took in washing according to my mother. And she always had a garden--right up into her 80s.

Any idea yet what day you might be down next week?

Bob

John,

I don't think I have anything of Lemuel, Grace, or Bud or Pearl. However, one of the things I want to go through with you when you visit is a couple of albums that were handed down to me from Grandma White, Lemuel's mother. There are several pics in there which we can't identify.

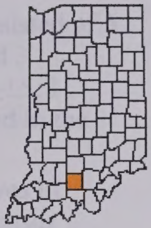
1820 Federal Census



Orange County, Indiana

What do all of the numbers mean?

Each entry in the census represents 1 household. Associated with each household are atleast 3 groups of numbers. The first group of numbers represent the males in the household, the second group represents the women, and the third group represent the means of employment.

A typical entry might read:

Robert McConnel	011300	01101	0100

The first group of numbers (males) breaks down as follows:

```
0     1     1     3     0     0
|     |     |     |     |     |
|     |     |     |     |     ---    45 and over
|     |     |     |     ----  ----   26 - 44
|     |     |     ----  ----  ----   16 - 25
|     |     ----  ----  ----  ----   16 - 18
|     ----  ----  ----  ----  ----   10 - 15
----  ----  ----  ----  ----  ----   Under 10
```

The second group of number (females) breaks down as follows:

```
0      1      1      0      1
|      |      |      |      |
|      |      |      |      ----   45 and over
|      |      |      ----   ----   26 - 44
|      |      ----   ----   ----   16-25
|      ----   ----   ----   ----   10 - 15
----   ----   ----   ----   ----   Under 10
```

The third group of number (employment) breaks down as follows:

```
0         1         0         0
|         |         |         |
|         |         |         ----     Manufacturing
|         |         ----      ----     Commerce
```

```
|        ----     ----     ----     Agriculture
----     ----     ----     ----     Foreigners

So from the example above, the household of Robert McConnel consisted of 5 males (1 between the ages of 10-15, 1 between the ages of 16-18 and 3 between the ages of 26-44) and 3 females (1 between the ages of 10-15, 1 between the ages of 16-25, and 1 over 45). One person was employed in the field of agriculture.

Blacks were treated as special entries. While it was legal to own slaves in Indiana in 1820, there were no slaves held in Orange County. The census records for Blacks includes 3 additional fields: The first field represents the state of the person (free or slave), The second group represents males and the third group represents females as follows

Males and Females:

```
1        1        1        1
|        |        |        |
|        |        |        ----     45 and over
|        |        ----     ----     26 - 44
|        ----     ----     ----     14 - 25
----     ----     ----     ----     under 14
```

Blacks lived in white households and also maintained separate household, as reflected by the records.

MT. PLEASANT CEMETERY

Two acres originally deeded Nov. 26, 1861 (Deed Book U, page 440), by Mahala (Blair) Johnson Shewmaker Cook, as legal heir and representative of Avis Blair (probably widow of John Blair). Mahala probably the daughter of John and Avis Blair. Although there were already burials in this cemetery before this 1861 deed, John who possibly died around 1840, Avis in 1860, and Mahala in 1863, were buried in what appears to be the family cemetery a little way south and east of here. The small cemetery has been destroyed in the past few years and broken pieces of some of the stones were moved to this larger cemetery, as recorded in this listing. Also, Paul Gregory and sons recorded these graves before the movement, as well as did Mr. & Mrs. Elmer Robbins, and Alice Zarring.

The 1861 deed to the trustee of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church said this land was to be used as a "graveyard" and whatever other purposes said church may direct. The last church building stood about one-half mile S.W. of here on the opposite side of the road. One acre there was deeded to the trustees of the "Regular Baptist Church, called Mt. Pleasant" on May 4, 1853 by James and Delilah (Johnson) Blair. This was in the East ½ of S.W. ¼ of Sec. 1 (on 1900 Atlas). An earlier deed of Sept. 24, 1836 to the trustees of this church for ¼ acre from James and Delilah Blair in N.W. ¼ of N.E. ¼ of Sec. 12, south of the one acre and on opposite (east) side of the road.

NOTE: See also Mr. Elmer Robbih's book on the Baptist Churches of Grassy Fork Township; the 1886 History of Jackson County (by Brant and Fuller); and The Mount Pleasant Church Books (Vols. 1 and 2).

This cemetery is located 2 to 2 and 1/2 miles N.E. of Tampico on the "Dudleytown Spur" road, and a half mile S.W. of the Washington-Grassy Fork township line on the east side of the above mentioned road. It is west of the Arthur Bishop property which surrounds it on N.E. & south sides, and north of the Denver Klinge residence (the old Tom Fleenor place). NW¼ of SE¼, Sec. 1, T4N, R5E
This listing was made by Donald Lee and Betty June (Waskom) Tatlock on Sunday, May 30, 1982.

Start 25 ft. north of S.W. corner inside, and to the left of gate. Rows listed from south to north, with Row 1 being on the west side and the last row (Row 23) being along the east side.

Paoli Township Section 34, T2N R1E Still Used.

This cemetery is 4 miles east of Paoli, on State Road 56. Stamper's Creek Primitive Baptist was organized on the 30th day of August 1818, at the home of George Duncan, and he was chosen moderator. The cemetery is well kept and serves a wide area. The identity of the first person buried there is now unknown, the crudely cut stone bearing only the date of 1820.

Notes for JAMES FRIEDLY RHUDE:
For nearly four decades, James Friedly Rhude served the Crothersville community as its only or primary letter carrier, an occupation which endeared him to hundreds of its citizens over the years.

Born in Scott County, James was the first child of Franklin B. Rude and his second wife, Blanche E. Lambert. Within a few years the family moved to Jackson County where three of James' siblings died in infancy and his mother succumbed to tuberculosis when he was just 11 years old. But James and a younger brother, Floyd W., survived the hardships of those early years living with their father in a number of locations in Vernon Township.

An unusually bright youngster, James did well in school. Sympathetic teachers arranged assistance for the family in a variety of ways. It was one of those same teachers who suggested that he add an "H" to his name. Eager to please, he obliged and spelled the name RHUDE from about age 12 on.

Soon after graduation from high school he took the civil service exam and was awarded the postal service job he held for the remainder of his life. He married Lucille Briner in 1937 and together they reared a son and two daughters. All three went on to become valedictorians of their respective classes of Crothersville High School and all three taught school for a number of years.

James and Lucille were active in the First Baptist Church of Crothersville and James was an ordained deacon of the church for many years. He died of a heart attack in September of 1971 just a few weeks before he was to retire from the postal service.
